Approved by the General Membership November 16, 2012
ARTICLE VIII Meetings

There shall be at least one meeting of the membership each year, which shall be held at a time and place designated by the Executive Committee, and shall be designated as the annual meeting for the election of the executive committee.

1. Notice and Quorum: All members of the Association shall be notified of the date, time and place of each regular meeting, such notice to be delivered no later than 14 days preceding the meeting. If proper notice has been given, a majority of the general members registered for and attending the meeting shall constitute a quorum.

2. Voting: All general members of the Association shall be allowed a single vote. Any general member may delegate his or her vote by proxy to any other general member in writing. Such proxy may cover any matter at any regularly noticed meeting in accordance with this document. The proxy shall contain the name of the county member to whom the vote is delegated, the meeting at which the proxy is valid, the signature of the county member delegating his or her vote, and the county and elected office held by the general member delegating his or her vote. Only written proxies shall be considered as delegation or assignment of voting privileges and must be submitted to the executive director prior to start of conduct of business at the meeting to which the proxy applies. All proxies are to be uninstructed. Proxies are not permitted in the election of the executive committee of the Association.

3. Procedures: All meetings of the membership shall be conducted in accordance with Robert’s Rules of Order, Revised.

ARTICLE IX Dues

1. County Dues: The Association shall assess annual dues to each county within the state in amounts determined by the Executive Committee with the agreement of the individual counties. Any proposed increase in the annual dues will be presented to and approved by the Executive Committee no later than the last Monday of November preceding the fiscal year in which the dues shall be assessed. The Executive Director shall notify each county of the approved dues amount for the next fiscal year no later than the first Monday of December preceding the fiscal year in which the dues shall be assessed. In the event any county fails to pay its dues by October 1st of any year, it shall be declared delinquent and lose its seat on the Board of Directors.
2. Individual Dues: In the event the county is delinquent, individual elected county officials from that county may retain their membership upon payment of appropriate dues. Such payment shall be an equitable percent of the county assessment for membership.

3. Associate and Business Dues: The Annual dues assessed to each Associate and Business Member of the Association shall be established by the Board of Directors no later than the last Monday of November preceding the fiscal year in which dues shall be assessed.

ARTICLE X Duties of the County Representative

The County representative shall act as the liaison between the county’s elected officials and the Arizona Association of Counties Executive Board. The representative is expected to bring concerns of that county to the Executive Board and report back on the Board’s action to the county officials. The representative should be familiar with the overall workings of the county so that he or she may represent the county’s needs during Executive Board meetings. The Association should keep the representative informed of changes that specifically affect the representative’s County.

Specific duties of the representative are:

1. Attend all meetings of the Executive Board.

2. Hold regular meetings of the county members of their county to discuss Executive Board action, review agendas and poll members on issues to come before the Executive Board.

3. Distribute publications of the Association including but not limited to, the county government platform, Bylaws, Legislative Bulletin, Arizona Government Directory, conference information, and the Salary and Benefit Survey.

4. In conjunction with other directors, approve the AACo budget including a dues assessment for each county based on population and assessed valuation and approve the annual county government platform.

6. Return to the Association surveys, polls, questionnaires and other resource information necessary for the Association to carry out its function.

7. Acquaint new officials with the function and purpose of the Association.

8. Notify the alternate county representative when unable to attend Executive Board meetings to ensure that the county will have proper representation.

ARTICLE XI Legislation

1. Policy: This Association shall be permitted to advocate bills and proposals that affect county government in general, or which affect more than one category of General Members established pursuant to Article III section 1. Legislative proposals which are presented by, and affect only an individual category of General Members established pursuant to Article III section 1 may be included in the Association legislative package following review and approval by the Legislative Policy Committee and the Board of Directors.

2. Procedure: General and associate members shall submit to the Legislative Committee proposed legislation for inclusion in the Association’s County Government Platform. Proposals should be received no later than August 1st of any year, however the executive committee has the right to accept proposals beyond the deadline as it determines necessary. No later than fifteen (15) days prior to annual conference the Legislative Committee shall forward the proposals to the Board of Directors with its recommendations for action. The Board will consider and take action on the proposals forwarded to it by the Legislative Committee during the Association’s Annual Conference. The County Government Platform will consist of legislative proposals and policy statements approved by the Board of Directors and will be distributed to the membership of the Association during the annual conference. Categories of general members established pursuant to Article III section 1 shall notify the Association of any proposals that will be pursued by those members independent from the Association’s County Government Platform. The legislative policy committee or board of directors may elect to adopt the legislative proposals offered by a category of general members established pursuant to Article III section 1, in whole or in part, as a component of the Association’s county government platform.

ARTICLE XII Association Staff

1. Executive Director: The Executive Director shall conduct the daily operations of the Association and shall be in charge of implementing the purposes of the Association. The Executive Committee shall appoint the Executive Director and shall determine salary and duties. The Executive Director shall receive direction only from the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors.

A. The Executive Director shall meet with and furnish necessary information to the Committee on Budget & Audit regarding dues, facilities, salaries and staffing. Such information shall be used to develop the annual budget recommendations to the Board of Directors.

This shall include the keeping of records of the Association, the taking of minutes for the meetings of the Association and of the Executive Board, the receipt, maintenance and disbursement of all Association funds and the transmittal of proper notice of meetings as required.

E. The Executive Director shall publish and distribute to the county and associate members any and all information, reports, minutes of meetings, and any other matters that may contribute to fulfilling the goals of the Association.

F. The Executive Director of the Association shall conduct the orientation for newly elected County Representatives prior to the Executive Board’s meeting at the Annual Conference.

G. The Executive Director shall be responsible for researching, drafting, lobbying and tracking Association bills or bills affecting general, affiliate or associate members.

2. Other Personnel: Subject to the approval of the Committee on Budget & Audit and the Board of Directors, the Executive Director may appoint such additional personnel as deemed necessary.

3. Expenses: Association personnel shall be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable expenses incurred in furthering the purposes of the Association, including transportation and per diem. The Executive Director shall approve such expenditures by Association personnel and the Executive Board shall ratify the expenses of the Executive Director.

ARTICLE XIII Finance

1. Fiscal Year: The Association shall operate on a fiscal year basis, from July 1 to June 30. The Executive Director shall cause an annual audit to be performed and prepare a financial report for each meeting of the Board of Directors. The annual audit shall be reviewed by the Executive Committee, Committee on Budget & Audit to make appropriate recommendations to the Board of Directors.

2. Procedures: Funds of the Association shall be received, maintained, distributed and accounted for in generally the same manner as provided by law for all public corporations.

3. Membership in Associations: Upon approval of the Board of Directors, the Association may join and pay dues to regional and national associations when such membership will serve to further the purposes of the Association.

4. Travel to National Association Meetings: The President of the Association, the Executive Director and Chairs of regional or national Committees, upon application thereof and availability of funds, shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in attending meetings of national county organizations.

ARTICLE XIV Amendments

This document may be amended at any duly noticed regular meeting by a two-thirds vote of the county members present and voting. Written notice of such meeting and a copy of the amendments to be presented shall be provided to each member at least thirty (30) days prior to said meeting.

ARTICLE XV Dissolution

In the event this Association is dissolved or otherwise terminated, all of its assets of every nature shall be returned to the counties then of record as members in proportion to the amount contributed or as otherwise required by federal and state laws.

ARTICLE XVI Bylaws

1. This document, the Bylaws of the Association shall govern the basic operations of the Association. The Board of Directors is authorized to adopt policies to govern the detailed operations of the Association so long as the policies adhere to the provisions of this document.

2. The Bylaws may be amended only by a two-thirds majority vote of the county membership pursuant to Article XIV. Proposed amendments may be submitted by any general member in good standing through that member’s County Representative sitting on the Board of Directors.
